

January, 1929.

10 Thursday. Snowed & stormy not very cold. Walter butchered 2 pigs at John Stange's today.

11 Friday. Snowing and storming We butchered 3 pigs here today, one for Mrs. J. D. Miller, one for William Howlett and the other for his neighbor Mr. Drainie. Ezra came over this morning and helped and was here for dinner.

12 Saturday
Friday. Snowing and storming and colder than yesterday. One of Wesley Miller's fat cattle broke its leg this morning and he brought it up here for Walter to kill. Other callers Will Howlett, Mr. Drainie, Lincoln Edler Sam Kart and Elijah Bridge.

Vernon went to Elmira with Wesley this p.m.

13 Sunday. Cold & stormy We didn't go to church this morning as it was so stormy just then. 24 at church Vernon spent the p.m. at Reisto. Wellington Weber's little boy died last night.
