

June 23rd, Strawberries ripening very fast. picked 205 crates today.

June 24th Biggest picking of strawberries 213 crates.

June 25th Had 53 crates picked before 2 o'clock. and stopped by rain. picked 36 more in the afternoon and stopped by rain again. A woman was planting some more Cauliflowers out.

June 26th Showers and thunder storms again. Berries getting very soft.

June 27 Biggest picking of strawberries 260 crates.

June 28. Very cool today. payed berry pickers $5.30 at noon and more yet to pay. payed $6.00 up to night.

Peace was signed by the allies + Germans this morning at 10:30. Just five years today. since the start of the war.

June 29 Cool and fine today.

June 30th Started picking some Early Richmond cherries. 63 lbs shipped to Muskoka at $1.25 a lb.

July 1st very warm picking strawberries.

July 2nd Finished picking strawberries. season for them was very short only 16 days since we picked first crate. had a little over 1600 crates - sprayed Montmorency cherries also, apples.