

April, 1925.

24 Friday. Fine day. Ella saw a swallow this morning. Walter got two calves at Norman Snider's and was there for dinner. Aubrey was sowing & harrowing. Ella was cleaning upstairs.

25 Saturday. Fine and warm. Walter was fixing things around the house all day. Aubrey was seeding

26 Sunday. Very warm day. Walter & Vernon went to S. S. & Church this morning. Our company for dinner - Mr. & Mrs. Albert Krauter, Mr. & Mrs. Emerson Krauter, Erla & Marie, Mr. & Mrs. Louis Miller and Charlie. Tonight after supper we went to the Mennonite church at Elmira with Louis Miller's in their new Studebaker. Rev. C. D. Derstine, a Mennonite evangelist from Kitchener, Ont., was the speaker. Wm. Brox died at Elmira this morning of pleural-pneumonia.