

October, 1925.

30 Friday. Not so cold. Fair.

The men were plowing.

31 Saturday. Fine day.

Vernon's birthday. He is 13 years old. He got a handkerchief from Mrs. Louis Miller and we gave him a fountain pen. This afternoon we went to Kitchener and Vernon got a new suit and overcoat. We were at Edith's for supper. We went down-town after tea and the streets were crowded with gay Halloween crowds.
