

June, 1930

4 Wednesday. Hot and sultry.

Norman Atkinson was here all day. Vernon made the ridges and Walter sowed the manure. Vernon started drawing manure on the summer fallow. Ella transplanted the tomatoes.

Amos Eby of Floradale died suddenly in a gravel pit near Heidelberg.

5 Thursday. Windy & hot.

Mrs. Geo. Schneider was buried this afternoon. Ella helped all day at the house. Norman Atkinson was here all day painting. Ed. Bolender called.

6 Friday. Cloudy & cooler.

A few little showers. The men were drawing manure. Walter took a load of grit to Floradale this p.m. Ella worked in the garden and transplanted cabbage, cauliflower, asters, balsam and stocks also planted 3 rows of sweet corn.

Mr. Thaler and son Clayton were here for supper. Lorne Reist visited Vernon tonight.