

frost this morning,
Jerry Fishcarrier left Thursday noon - only Jack left and Geo Hammond ploughing part of the time.

Nov 11th Was at market - sold out at half past six, had nearly all cabbage

Nov 12th Sunday. Had visitors Dean B. + Roy + Will Bell,

Nov 13th Heavy frost this morning cut load of Cabbage for market and started unloading ~~the~~ 2nd car of manure - putting in Raspberries

Nov 14th Went to market with last load of the year about 60 doz Cabbage made about $20.00 did not get home till 5 o'clock. mild, rained at night

Nov 15. started unloading 3rd car of manure with the truck, weather cool & cloudy -

Nov 16th Finished car of manure and started spreading on the ground -

Nov 17th. warm & very heavy south west wind (drawing manure & cutting out Raspberry bushes -)

Nov 18 Rough & showery
man ploughing,

Nov 19 Sunday. cloudy and a little cooler

Nov 20th Cool & cloudy trimming out Raspberry bushes -

Nov 21st Same job trimming berry bushes. Geo. H. ploughing.

Nov 22nd Looks like winter this morning