

Tuesday 31st As usual today Father intended going for a girl but has been too busy at the mill. has concluded to wait & go to-morrow. I hope he may succeed. A very beautiful day. Miss & Mrs Cornwall called this morning they had been for a walk.

Wednesday April 1st Father has been successful today in getting the promise of a girl to come to-morrow. I hope she will not disappoint us. I received a letter from Cousin Rachel. She does not write very well but she is a kindhearted girl I like to hear from her. But it is very cold to night and I must hacket and retire Good night.

Thursday 2nd. Disappointed again. The girl Father engaged yesterday has not come, no invitation. I wonder what has become of her. I have not heard from her since last fall.

Friday 3rd Father has gone to Wrentham today I would like to have went with him but that was an impossibility. I hope he will not be gone long. Daniel brought from the office this evening a letter from Susan. It is
