

Jan 1st 1893.

Sun. 1.

Snowing hard all the forenoon, changing from snow to rain several times in the afternoon, ending up with a rain at night, fall of snow about six inches.

Mrs Warner at Alf Brown, Mrs Brown and Mrs Dany here for dinner, spent the day at home. <sup>1893</sup> New Year's Day.

Mon. 2.

Mild to day, having frozen a little during the night, so that it still remains good, sleighing and walking. The rain of last night only settled the snow, a little flurry of snow this forenoon, turning raw and cold towards night. Election Day for the Municipality of Candiac are as follows.

Tue 3.

Very cold this morning went with John, Melissa, Gusta, Ida, out to Alfred Brown's for dinner from there to Jas Warner Yarker for tea, Mrs Warner accompanied us from Brown's, she being there to render all help possible, on account of Alf Brown having fell from his sleigh and broken two of his ribs on Monday of last week, he is considerable better now, He enjoyed the trip very much all arriving home about seven O'clock PM

Very 11° snow zero
Suffice tea meeting to night
Most lovely day but very cold
