Frank and I hoped to get the last of the old trees down home cut to day but did not manage it. It was so late when we got all the chores done we thought we would have an early dinner and go immediately after, but Art Quibben came after me to look at his heater then when we got down town we could not get a ladder. While we were there John W. White came to see me and we came home with him. Just as we had finished tea Guy Lupton came for me. This has been the coldest day so far this winter 2.0° below, not as cold tonight. We had a fine letter from John to day and the card we should have received on Tuesday. Frank feels miserable tonight lower back.

Saturday, January 13th

Frank is about all in. He did go over to Ben's and fed the chickens but he feels pretty lousy. I am doing chores most of the day. Hubert came over this afternoon with old Pig. We put him to sleep. Hubert stayed to tea and he and the baby had
