

was bound to get into the cornfield. Marj. was and Else advised me to wait awhile. He gave down town this afternoon and stayed for tea with me his ideas concerning hens laying at this time of year and he thinks they should be shut Mrs. M^{rs} Queen's and then went over to the Bagleys right in now. He says the hens he is looking I went down after tea and put my hair cut after are laying the best of any over there. Marj. and then went up to Percy Pyersie's to see if he went down to Auntys this afternoon to celebrate had done any figuring on the house yet but her birthday. Auntys Alice was having a bridge he hadn't. I went into Mrs. Bagley's where a party so it worked in very nicely. I went I found Marj. We stayed there for awhile & then went down to Auntys where a party was down to the Lixis boys meeting to-night & thanks just breaking up so we partook of coffee & to Marj. thinking up some things for them to do cake and got home about twelve o'clock we had a good meeting. I went in to Auntys and called for Marj. and had some party cake. It has been cloudy, windy & raw to day.

Saturday December 3rd

Dad. ploughed to-day but didn't get a very early start and was bothered quite a lot to get his strike in the right place as he can't see the old dead furrows. I went out after dinner and helped him measure off me & set stakes. I spent most of the forenoon doing chores as well as most of the afternoon. I went over to Martin's this morning to see if I could pour off any more cockerels on Jack, but Sid. & Else said he was pretty well loaded with them just now

Sunday December 4th

Marj. & I went to Sunday school and church this morning and went up to the Bagleys for dinner where we had spare ribs in honor of Marj.'s birthday. After dinner Mr. Bagley took me out to see his chickens and then we went down and had a look at the new rink, which has the roof and sides on now but has no grading done inside and to complete it, it should have about
