A bright winter day, thawing a little in bright sunshine on the roads. Good sleighing but some large snow banks on side of roads. Spent forenoon at Lion Church preparing it for SS Party tonight. Afternoon had cutter ride through town. This evening brought a load

THURSDAY, 2.

Brampton folks to Ebenezer SS Anniversary, a fruit festival no tea, good recitations and music by scholars & readings by W. J. Spier a grand success. Was in town a while today. Mr & Mrs Fowler a new married couple from Seaford spent today with us. Very blustering and cold.

FRIDAY, 3.

The wind storm and drifting continued all day fiercely. Did no work beside the usual feeding at the barn. A boil on my face compelled me to remain in as much as possible. In evening went to Post Office and paid annual box rent, 50¢ also subscribed for Weekly Globe yesterday $1.75

Jan. SATURDAY, 4. 1879.

Started to town this morning with load of wood but managed to upset whole load into a snow bank before arriving at No 10. Left it there and came home. The roads are badly drifted. Was getting out some saw logs in afternoon.

SUNDAY, 5.

Went to school this morning lesson, Ezra III, chap. The second temple or "a new beginning". A good attendance. The January "Northern Messenger" was distributed. Tonight in C M Church in town heard Rev E Clement preach from text: Dent. IV 32nd verse.

MONDAY, 6.

Out in lower woods and drew to saw mill in town by saw logs (basswood) this comprised the day's work except the duty of voting at polling booth at No 10 for new council of Chingwacung in current year. Spent evening at party at Mr G Blains in town.

Jan. TUESDAY, 7. 1879.

Arrived home at 4 A.M. and felt pretty drowsy at daybreak this morning. Spent today in making four trips to town with 5 cords of dry mixed wood for Haquuts & Broa woodyard. Fine winter weather and good sleighing.

WEDNESDAY, 8.

At same work as yesterday but only making three trips. Also attended the Annual Public School meeting in School House at 10 A.M. Only a few present and not much business to transact. Spent evening at a Temperance meeting near Alvoa.

THURSDAY, 9.

Hauling wood continued. Snow is nearly worn off the road in town. Strained one of my horses legs some now in drawing. Spent tonight at a party at A F Campbell's in town stand until a late hour.

Jan.

FRIDAY, 10.

1879.

Completed the job of delivering 20 cords of mixed wood to Haquet Bros @ $2.00 per cord; credit in manufactured goods.
In town tonight a couple of hours. Received from J. D. Woodland a "Chicago Tribune".

SATURDAY, 11.

Cutting and hauling elm and hemlock saw logs to saw mill. A lighter fall of snow today.
Bought from T. M. M. a quarter of beef 125 lbs @ 4¢ per lb.

SUNDAY, 12.

At school this morning lesson Ezra, VI 14 to 22.
The dedication of second Temple. Spent afternoon and took tea at A. J. Little in town. Dinner at C. M. Church heard Rev. C. E. McArthur preach from Luke III 16 to 20.

Jan.

MONDAY, 13.

1879.

This forenoon's work was cutting and hauling 3 saw logs to Brampton, total number of logs taken to mill 15.
Afternoon, Hewitt took job of threshing the oats with flail for every tenth bushel as his pay including board.
Tonight was at S. A. Teacher's meeting at Unger's.

TUESDAY, 14.

Weather continues moderate good sleighing except some pretty bad drifts.
This forenoon working at a new box (basswood) for the bot sleighs. Afternoon at John Hindle's auction sale. For tea at Willow Lodge.
Tonight writing letter to Wm McGrath.

WEDNESDAY, 15.

Principal work today was tassing the new sleigh box to Blacksmith's for the necessary irons. Drove up from the woods some elm stake cuts & fence posts. Evening at home with two young ladies Misses Emma Carter & Mary Hayley.

Jan.

THURSDAY, 16. 1879.

Was invited to attend a bee for hauling stone today but morning was very cold and stormy and did not go.

Drove to school house twice with and for the scholars. Also in town a few minutes brought home the new sleigh by all of clear basswood.

FRIDAY, 17.

Fulfilled today the promise made for yesterday namely a stone bee for R. J. Nichols. Drove one mile north of Shelburnham and brought a large load of free stone to Frampton. At home this evening reading town books.

SATURDAY, 18.
