FRI. APRIL 15, 1898

Wea.

I rose and made the fire. after we had breakfast, I went out to the garden. I put in quite a bit more garden, and turned down the grass. We sent the boys up to Hutchinsons with some Rose bushes and some flower roots.

SATURDAY 16

Wea.

I rose and attended to the bread, as this is bake day. I baked bread & beans and scrubbed in forenoon and after dinner I baked pies and cakes. I had a very busy day. We have been looking for my sister Maggie but she did not come.
