

Wednesday April 19, 1922.
 In the forenoon, Kent delivered to the Bay and back home and I went round the Townline.
 In the afternoon we took the cattle and horses down to the pasture and finished the mail route to Lewis Owen's.

A storm came on as we were putting the horses and cattle into the pasture and it was very cold and disagreeable. I borrowed a coat and mitts from R. Loyet.
 John came home with Kent.

Thursday April 20, 1922.
 Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline with the colts.
 I delivered round by the Club with Dick.

After coming home Kent hitched the colt, Floyd to the cart and drove him round for a while and then hitched up the and took Mabel and Mary Kemp over to Gillett's.

Tuesday May 30, 1922 as per index 144
 Kent and I got straw for bedding at Brown's and took pack to the syate to make
