

Saturday July 23, 1924.

Mabel delivered mail and as the bridge is up on the Baldoon I went to the office early and sorted the mail and went along on the Bay part.

Maudie came home from Mary Kemp's on the 9 a.m. car and Mabel and Maudie went to Wallaceton in the afternoon.

Sunday July 24, 1924.

Charlie and Roy and I went to Church in the morning.

Mabel and Maudie and the boys went to Peterkins and the Bay in the evening.

Charlie went up to Louville with Nina in the afternoon.

The day was fine.

Monday July 25, 1924.

Mabel delivered mail.

I went with the Engineer Colby on the Gordon train.

Roy was at Bain Court with Charlie.

The day was fine.