

JAMES CAMERON Island 28th Feb 1902

Last Day of February a fine Day Gordon and Seander went to Mill to Cornwall With 18 or 20 Bushels of Onia went to Sumnerstown to Adelaide East Wind Began to Rain this Evening and 23 Poured nearly all night they came G had their first a good Return of Y Hour Bought a cropcut saw the Lancet one handle Onia Bought 2 Lamp chimneys and Sugar

1st of MARCH St David's Day
Gaff the Welshmans Day The Sea Came in Raining Daytime Fine the sun shone Bright UNfortunate Day Fixing the Place for the Ice

Gordon sawing with the new Crosscut saw the Lancet cross plenty Gapt of tree for a drink First Eggs came in to day 11m awful hot Rained hard to night

2nd UNfortunate Day Sunday Rain pouring Rain all Day Rained to night and very Windy to night 3rd fine cool Windy Gordon and Stanley

Sawing the Elm Butt above the House Stanley got sawdust in one of his eyes Wrote a Letter to Day to Miss Garry Burton on Marcellie thanks for the Book
I hope some to night Windy North

March one Load to Jos on 6th

JAMES CAMERON Island 4th March 1902

William Henry Shadgate Cameron Birth Day Uncle John, Eldest son Born in Quebec Randolph and Seander
after the gone at Francis Seander

after the gone at Francis Seander shot him cutting ice on the south side of the Island Gordon Bad with the footback sunshiny Day North Wind I can hardly see this what I am Writing sent a Letter with Randolph to put in the P O to Marcellie filing the other saw for the ice cut 40 squares of ice Gordon and Seander went down to the Kit Pitt see if there was any

Foxes Salmon River is open down to the Distillery 5th UNfortunate

Day Gordon Stanley Seander at the ice

Randolph came had the Kansas

Paper went to the ice with them a very fine Day I can hardly see what I am Writing my sight is getting worse every Day this is East Wind boys at the ice

6th a very very fine Day Randolph came had a Letter with Receipt of the 11 Dollars for the Raking machine taking up ice Eddy Kershaw for sawdust to Lancaster a social on Sumnerstown to Seander Gordon crossed to the social (ice clean down for word (sawdust) in