

July, 1929

3 Wednesday. Fair and cool. Ella did the washing this morning and she and Mildred picked some strawberries in Schwandt's bush this afternoon. Vernon harrowed the summer fallow and scuffled the potatoes and mangels. Walter was pulling mustard.

4 Thursday. Sultry with heavy thunderstorms and rain. Albert French's barn was struck by lightning and burnt at noon. The men were pulling mustard this forenoon. Mildred was sick and slept practically all day.

5 Friday. Lovely day. Vernon was hoeing mangels. Mildred had the measles this morning so Walter took her home to Waterloo. He had his dinner at Esquand's Krauter's and brought Allen, Marie, Albert and Alice home with him.
