

getting so full. Frank went down to Sam's right after dinner and was down there all the afternoon. Dad. I got in two more jugs and put them in the horse stable and Enoch came out and told me when to trip. We threw one good big load and left it on the barn floor. So we all went down to Auntie's to see Dick, this being last night here. Nuby was there, raising Cain and the baby wild. Win has gone into the bank to try it. This was her first day. Frank and I rode down with Martin in his new car. Cloudy this morning but hot this.

Thursday August 16th

Frank went over and harrowed Jack Martin's waygon this morning so that we could haul wheat with horse teams as it is so far back to go with one waygon. Dad. I pitched up the load of hay by hand into the east end. We thought we could do it quicker than changing the Enoch and the baby went back with us and Enoch picked berries while we were loading up. It was rather late when we got started so we just made one trip this morning and couldn't take very big loads as the sheaves are pretty green in the huts yet. Frank had the old team and father had the wheeled waygon and when Dad pulled the wheeled hay
