Recovery for Services—Evidence of Qualification.

In an action in the State of New Jersey to recover for the services of a physician rendered in the State of New York, it was held that the facts that (1) the plaintiff had not introduced in evidence his license as a physician and surgeon in the city of New York; and (2) that he had not deposited with the county clerk a copy of any diploma of a legally chartered medical college or university in good standing, or some medical society having power by law to grant diplomas, were not ground for non-suiting the plaintiff.—Corcia v. Guiliano, New Jersey Court of Errors and Appeals, 87 Atl.94.
