

I think it is high time Dick got a raise, as Dick himself is getting dissatisfied and would like to move some where else. Mr. Habbes spoke as if he couldn't get along with the out him and wouldn't hear of him being moved but said the financial condition of the bank was such that he couldn't expect more wages just now. He praised Dick up highly and said he had never had a bad report, but he doesn't seem to believe in telling Dick that he also got his hair cut and got home before me. I was talking to Sam. Thompson about joining the Norfolk Fruit growers Association and he said if one of us came up and helped him down he would be his spray outfit. Zitha was just leaving here when I got home so I said good bye to her. She is going on Wednesday to Philadelphia or near there. To night I went down again and took May to the picture show's see Mary

Tuesday February 27th

I didn't do much this morning but washed out the incubators and got the lamps cleaned up. Dad & Frank finished cleaning out the pen in the barn where John & her were. This afternoon Dad did up the chares while Frank and I got on a load of hay out of Prester's barn for Bob Lacey. Frank harrowed out Jeanburg's team to haul
