

[pg 71]

1879 7<sup>mo</sup> 3rd My father & Mother with eleven Children landed in Quebec in 1821, 59 years ago to day. _

—
7<sup>mo</sup> 25th Seven years ago this morning between two & three o'clock, Our dear Edith breathed her last, sitting in the Arm-chair in her sixteenth years, _ _ Maria Ellsworth & daughter Phebe Jane spending the afternoon at Nelsons, father & myself took tea with them.

—
8<sup>mo</sup> 9th Levi met Mary Bowerman daughter Lydia at Picton, on her way from the States, to make us a visit. _ _ _

—
_12th Met Elizabeth at the boat spent a week with us.

—
_31st Daniel Levens buried at our meeting-house aged 90 years, Vincent was at the feuneral [sic]. _ _ _

[pg 72]

1879 9<sup>mo</sup> 1st Lydia & myself heard the Cars for the first time siting [sic] at our dineing-room [sic] window pealing [sic] pears.

—
_3rd Aunt Maria & Kate came here for a visit, spent three days with us, then to Levi's, starting for home on the 8th Second – day morning. Levi takeing [sic] them to Picton & bringing back some English friends, James Clark & his two daughters Sophia & Edith, it was a very short visit of two or three hours. _ _ _

—
_6th Father Lydia & myself went to Levis with Aunt Maria & Kate, stoped [sic] till the following Sixth day, Thomas Birth day the 10th 9 years old,

—
11<sup>mo</sup> 2nd First day no meeting, our first snow