

and four o'clock, he said they had a great time down there dancing till twelve o'clock but not later as it was then Lent. The sleighing was poor but they had no accidents.
I heard to night that Jack Mathew had caught Vipe out's Sunny but windy to-day quite a snow storm to night with mid night but Frank and his pals missed it.

Wednesday March 9th

This morning Dad and I drove down town and took the baby we got Joe shod in at Best Green herys who has started up in Butler's old stand. Aunt and Aunty Alice were at church as this in Ash. Wednesday, but weren't long and Dad stayed there with the baby till they got back. I took the buggy under down and we looked at the arms of Harry Ausley's buggy which is out in the barn down there, it looks as if it had been painted twice but is in pretty good shape. I got Joe out of the shop at noon and Dad and I went up town found Harry Ausley at the post office and took him up with us and got his mare and brought her over. We left the baby down there to dinner. This after noon we did chores and about four o'clock drove down after the baby He wasn't at all anxious to come home. Frank was down at Tenty's and he and I went up and got the books a letter of Enah. Frank got a sheet to night showing a system of keeping farm accounts as arranged by a Mr.

Edrick District Representative for Paul Co. we saw an account of it in an old number of the Farmer's Advocate. so Frank wrote to him the other day. It seems like a very simple yet efficient system and only single entries.
I spent the evening pasting snap shots in my album.
Sunny but quite cold all day and very blizzardy to night.

Thursday March 10th

Frank stayed home from school to-day to help us move some Hay from the big barn, we did chore this morning and got a pretty good sized load over to the horse stable before dinner and this after noon got another over to the old barn for the cattle, we had to get the chores done early to night as we all went over to Swanburg's to tea at six o'clock we had a great tea, but Dad had to leave right after to attend a meeting to arrange for a reunion of all Mr. Smith's old pupils on the first of July. Enah, Frank the baby and I stayed till about half past nine and then left drove us home as it was a piece night. Billy Galoon was in
