

October, 1925,

23 Friday Cloudy & cold. Snow flurries. Aubrey got back at noon and helped to thresh at Earl Miller's this p.m. Walter & Ella had their dinner at Grandpa Krouters and were pecking apples this p.m.

24 Saturday Cloudy and showery. Walter, Aubrey and Vernon took the vegetables, etc. from the Woolwich D. School down to the Orphanage at Kitchener this afternoon. They went up to Grandpa's to get our apples and were there for tea.

25 Sunday Cold, cloudy & showery. We went to the Woolwich church & D. S. this morning, came home and ate a hurried dinner, went over to Gloradale church & D. S. where Rev. J. P. Hauch preached and the Bridgport Orchestra rendered excellent music. We went to J. B. Snider's for tea and took in the Harvest Home entertainment in the evening. We called at Ezra Maurer's on our way home.
