

just now I offered my humble self to teach a small class of the minor scholar so Alf who had a class of about a dozen^{or more} kindly gave me half a dozen to begin with. I must try and learn the characters of my young pupils so that I may know how to treat them - May the Giver of all Good teach me to attend to my duty as a teacher should.

Went to Church in the evening.

Rather a cold day
