

February, 1925.

8 Sunday. Mild spring-like day. We drove to church with Enoch's in the sleigh. It rained when we were coming home. Lincoln's called in. Dick Zuidervaart was here for tea.

9 Monday. Mild and dreary. Heavy rain this afternoon. Walter took 16 small pigs to the Elmira Fair and sold them. We had a real surprise today when Allen called up from Toronto and told us that he and his bride were coming this p.m. They came up here with Walter in the sleigh. Grandpa Kraeter came here from Elmira this p.m.

Ella saw two sea gulls today.

10 Tuesday. Cloudy & dull. Not very cold. Emerson had an auction sale today and had a good crowd there in spite of the roads being in a terrible condition.
