and spoke as favorably of the deceased, who had done so much to make everyone happy in his life and who had used his many talents as well.

Monday - March 5th. Worked Arithmetic in the morning along with uncle Davidson. Went to Mrs. Bennett's on my way to the funeral. A lovely day but the roads were in very bad state. A very large crowd. At the house, the hymn was sung and the organ played "Tune." Ferguson made a very impressive prayer and Mr. Sanderson gave out the hymn. The Foresters and the Temperance Societies were there all wore regalia and badges. At the church, both Gilford and Ebenezer Choir sang as he was a member of both. Voluntary - "We are Pilgrims looking home." Mr. Ferguson preached from the text."
