

wind. Dull all day. snowing in the evening. Logging.

Tuesday 8th. Morning cold with rain and sleet. Father Robert & me leveling earth in the clearing. Fred and Phil cutting fore woods. In afternoon logging finished between shard and ^{afternoon} ~~nd.~~ evening rather muddy.

Wednesday 9th. Sharp white frost last night. Mild and pleasant all day wind north. Leveling and burning rakes raking. Level log fire clearing stumps of drawing fence stakes. dragging.

Thursday 10th. Frost last night fine and warm all day. Robert away to Holburne raising. Father leveling Fred raking. Phil dragging. Cleaning wheat and getting fit for sowing. Spreads ashes. Robert sowed some flat Dutch cabbage seed and daisies.

Friday 11th. Slight frost. Fine day dull and show of rain towards night sowed 3 bushels the Rakes of wheat and some Timothy seed. Phil dragging. In the morning I made a drag. Father, Robert, Fred. leveling, burning &c.

Saturday 12th. Fine and dull raining slightly in the first of the morning. Sowed the Timothy seed between shard and me. drew log off land and spread the ashes. Father Fred and Robert planting pease in the afternoon. Phil dragging sowed some wheat.

Sunday 13th. Morning fine. dull in the evening with rain at night.

Monday 14th. fine. Father and boys finished planting pease and planted some carrots. Phil dragging sowed some wheat cutting short stumps close to the growner. Me and Robert made a hen house Old hen hatched 7 chicks.

Tuesday 15th. Very warm with strong wind from south West and south in the afternoon and evening thunder with heavy showers of rain. Sowed some wheat this morning. Phil dragging. Father and rest finished sowing carrot seed. and commenced planting potatoes