

Chopping off the old corn stubble with a hoe. We didn't finish the field. Ina was here again. There is great excitement in the Clan Donald as Ada has a baby it was born last Sunday and is a girl. Fine day.

Friday April 8th

Tom took Ina down and had her shoes set this morning as her right fore shoe was loose and her leg quite swollen where she had evidently wrenched it. I drove over with him to the farm and walked down to Aunt's from there with Dad. Dick had his car down there and we soon got under way for Toronto. It was quite a cold morning but very enjoyable in the closed car. We had lunch at a place Dick knew of at Burlington and except for jamming into the railing on the Caledonia bridge when passing a hay rack we had an uneventful but very enjoyable trip. We went the Lake Shore road from Hamilton to Toronto partly so that Dad could see the fine houses along that route. We went up to see Mrs. Millman for a short time after we had registered at the Queen's hotel. We expected Aunty to be home but after the trip but she said she wasn't in the least. So night we took a taxi to the Coliseum where the horse show took place. It consisted almost entirely of jumping events a good deal of it by boys & girls and they did very well. Louis MacDonald or rather Sifton was supposed to be in several of the classes and the others said they recognised her but I didn't. Two of the features of the show were first a representation of hunting meet. and included a chorus or two before the Pig & Whistle Son. with barmaids & villagers and finally a parade of the hounds & hares and secondly a representation of an Epsom Derby, with the track in miniature this night before the race and the race its self. All fine.

Saturday April 9th

After breakfast I walked up to Eaton's and got some playthings for the kids while the rest of the party waited for me at the Millman's office. They said I kept them a long time although I didn't realize it. We then drove up to the Scott's and saw Miss Scott & Louis for a little while and would have gone to see Carrie but found that she wasn't home by 11th hour from the Scott's. The paper predicted rain at noon.
