

and drove along the side of it for some time.

Crossed into Pennsylvania about 11 a.m. the scenery fine around here hilly with lots of rivers & creeks.

crossed over an old wooden bridge that was covered over. Mansfield Pa. next stop. we ate our dinner there in Smythe Park. was cool but sat in the sun with our overcoats on. Got some milk 11¢ Bread 10¢ 1/2 lb Butter 35¢. and started on one of our chickens they were cooked dandy also spent 60¢ for film here. after leaving here we started to climb

this is the old Suezehayne Trail at the highest point on the road they had a Park. Called Trail Top Park at 2140 feet elevation best scenery so far here small streams aplenty.
Packhouse Run one of the streams elevation 1704 feet. passed a small Village called Trout Run. Took a snap of the creek here - over another creek. Wolf Run then over Locoming Creek crossed it about 8 times before we arrived at Williamsport. abbreviated on the sign boards to Wmport. it was 52 miles from Mansfield to Wm.
port. Williamsport is a large
