

February, 1927.

10 Thursday. Beautiful, clear cold day. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira, had his dinner at Carlo's and went to Addison Stahlbaum's sale this afternoon. We spent the evening at Otto Miller's and had a fine time.

11 Friday. Clear, cold and windy. Walter went to Creekbank and Alma this morning and he and Vernon cut some poles in the swamp this p.m. Callers - Noah Miller, Walter Adler, Sam Bird and Lincoln Edler.

12 Saturday. Clear, cold & windy. The men brought another load of poles from the swamp this afternoon. Callers - Joe Singrich, Almon Dwyer, Otto Miller and Allen Wagner.

13 Sunday. Cold, raw, east wind blowing. We went to church & S. School this morning and to Noah Miller's for dinner.

Fred Doehner died yesterday at Floradale of cancer and stroke.
