

May 10.

Thursday 10.

Another wonderful day. Sprinkled a little a few times. Looks like rain tonight. Mother and John have worked in the garden all day. I have been painting on the veranda. Dad has finished sowing another field.

May 11.

Friday 11.

Very bright with a cold wind blowing this afternoon. We papered the kitchen today and I painted some. I went to town this morning after some more paper. To night we went out to choir practise.

May 12.

Saturday 12.

Very cold, cold north west wind. Melba went to Sparta for Maudie & then they went to St. Thomas. Harry brought Melba home. The man John & I put most of the garden or put the rest of the potatoes in John finished weeding