

1888

Jan 18

Rev. W. Millard preached this morning Sunday

Ad got a telegram from Lynn at 11 o'clock that Jack Bab was sick with inflammation of the lungs he took his mother down into the hospital

19 we got a telegram this morning he is ~~not~~ better

20 Ad came home last night Bab was a little better day spot rain and a thaw last night

21 the snow is nearly all gone this morning the fields nearly all bare except where there is drift

22 every thing is dry this morning knew frost last night and this morning cold west wind Ad went to Syn in the night he got a telegram that

Uncle Robert died at one o'clock today

23 Ad got home from Syn this morning the funeral be on Saturday at 11 o'clock at the house he is to be buried at the stone church

24 Ad went to Syn with the cutter this morning

Levet went with him hard frost last night

Nancy Kargelwood came from Ganago last night

Ad was in the church

Ad was in the church

Ad was in the church

25 Rev. W. Millard preached this evening Sunday

26 rained most of the day with sleet & snow

27 frost this morning Ad drew dung to the North field with two sloughs Linn Rees loaded while Ad was away it had to be chaped with 28 Ad drew 3 loads this forenoon rained in the afternoon and fog

29 heavy rain first of the night then snowed over 2 inches

30 flurries of snow this afternoon the snow took off the snow in the forenoon

31 Linn, Linn and Aunt Linn and Frank

Bronstrong come from Brattleboro on the Mixed tonight drifting rain and snow

31 fine day the roads is very bad I could not get to Fairfax to the Session the Communion is to be deferred tomorrow