

December, 1928

25 Tuesday. Mild, and dreary. Walter, Ella & Vernon went to Grandpa Krauter's for Christmas dinner. Emerson's and Lincoln were also there and we had a goose roast. We came home this p.m. and Willard came home with us. Tonight Walter, Willard & Vernon went to the entertainment at Woolwich. Ella had a ripping headache and couldn't go.

26 Wednesday. Lovely spring like day. Walter went to the School Meeting at Creekbank this morning. Vernon, Harvey and Willard were in the bush this afternoon. Annie Schneider visited Ella this afternoon.

27 Thursday. Fair and mild. We butchered a pig here today for ourselves and Mrs. Rice. Willard & Vernon called at Addison Risto's this afternoon. The men went over to Noah Miller's and got a pig that Walter bought.
