

September, 1926

26 Sunday. First frost last night. Cold & clear day.

We went to church & S. School this morning and to Leon Waagner's for dinner and supper.

27 Monday. Fair and somewhat warmer. Walter took a load of wheat to St. Jacobs. Vernon was digging a ditch in the lane.

Aubrey plowed. Walter went to a Sunday School meeting tonight.

28 Tuesday. Fine day.

Vernon & Aubrey were plowing this forenoon. This p.m. they were cutting buckwheat with the mower.

29 Wednesday. Fine day.

The men finished cutting the buckwheat this morning and Walter, Elmer & Vernon went to the School Fair at St. Jacobs where there was a large crowd.

30 Thursday. Lovely day. Walter shipped hops and cut the flax this afternoon. Vera Hillman came up to Pearl's with Walter.
