

- 1881² 19 Was cleaning house and picking up things generally.
 20 Cleaned out the cellar and put my milk in at night and baked bread. Mary Barr was here to dinner and the Coolidge to tea. Edna before called after tea. Sent 9¹/₂^{lb} of butter to the station and sold for 15 per lb.
 21 Went to church in the forenoon and had no minister.
 Mr Sanderson sick, and also Jane. Went to prayer meeting at four o'clock.
 22 Stewed pumpkin and baked four pies; some chowder, and after tea went over to see Jane Sanderson. They think her some better.
 23 Washed in the forenoon and ironed some in the afternoon.

 Mrs Lonic Black buried at four o'clock.

- 24 Was alone the most of the day. Baked bread, and beans, sewed some, and knit some.
 25 In the morning ironed; then took down the pipes to the parlor stove, arranged my bed to sleep down stairs, made a pie for dinner, and in the afternoon washed two blankets and some other washing and afterwards chowder. David was here to dinner.
 26 Showers in the forenoon.
 Went to the station in the morning and sold 11¹/₂^{lb} of butter for fifteen cents per pound. Settled up for my silk 2⁹/₁₆ bought 3¹/₄ yds cambric at 12^c, for window blinds, a cake of soap and a large butter tub.
