November THURSDAY, 14 (319—47) 1912

It was a very nice day Ada & Fred came home from Greggio's I went to Winchester after the file for Mother 15·1917 It was a heavy white frost Stephen and I went up to Sam Collingworth at Athens to see about the papers for the pure bred cows

FRIDAY, 15 (320—46)

It was a cold raw day It snowed pretty much all day Uncle Newbin & I went to the back place
16·1917 It was a beautiful day I sorted some apples in the forenoon and worked the colts in the afternoon

SATURDAY, 16 (321—45)

It was a quite a nice day Fred & Laura went to Winchester in the morning I helped put up the file in her sewing Fred took Abbie to Interurban
17·1917 It was a little dull Ray & I took some apples down to Greggio's to get some cider made & ploughed in the afternoon Fred side was bothering him