75 DAYS PAST

Saturday.

291 TO COME

Even the Rebellious Child, who generally resists attempts at medication, rarely objects to Pepto-Mangan (Gude), because it is distinctly pleasant to the taste. No one can consistently refuse this efficient general tonic, as it is free from irritant or astringent properties, does not stain the teeth and is devoid of constipating action or effect.

Weather

a nasty rainy cold day.
