

April 16th a little milder but very heavy winds was with see Grandpa Boniface do not think he will last much longer,

April 17th. Fair but very cold. with strong west wind. Grandpa Boniface died last night at 11 o'clock had only been sick a week. Have been all over the country hunting a woman (Madge) has a cold and wants a weeks rest.

April 18th Sunday Fair &
cold.

April 19th Cold & clear
was up to Hamilton,
to Grandpa Boniface's
funeral

April 20th a little milder unloading 5th
car of manure

April 21st Fine & mild had a thunder shower
after dinner the first of the year

April 22nd Very warm
just like summer
hunting for a horse
all afternoon good horses seem scarce

April 23rd a little colder drawing brush

April 24th Showery & cold East wind planted 8 sashes Cucos (6 of Perfectum) and 2 of Snowball Cauliflower in 8 sashes.
Jehy & other Indian
came down today to work