

January, 1931.

24 Saturday. Stormy from the east. Walter went to Elmira this afternoon. Fred Miller, who used to live on our farm and built this house was buried in Elmira Cemetery today. Orpha Miller spent the afternoon with Ella.

25 Sunday. Cloudy & mild. Walter and Vernon went to S. P. and church this morning and Vernon went to League tonight.

26 Monday. Fine sunny day. Walter killed a cow for Enoch Schneider and a heifer for Elmo King and called at Earl Miller's. Ella did the washing and Vernon hauled some manure this afternoon. We had company tonight - Mrs. and Mrs. Elmo King, Helen & Jack, Gerard Reid, Clarence & Ross Farncombe

27 Tuesday. Cloudy with snow. We butchered 2 pigs for Enoch Schneider today. Enoch was here for dinner. Mrs. Manessah Martin Minerva and Rebecca spent the afternoon with Ella.
