

Duncan here in the evening. Radio and game of chess. Charlie here a ^{at noon} minute

Sept-8th - Wed-day. Showery all day - getting Saturday Showers. Duncan came in the morning and took his radio away for repairs. In the afternoon Mrs. M. A.
Halliday called and stayed for an hour or more. Poured all evening.
Studied a little. Fire in the fireplace.

Sept-9th -

Sunday. Gladly cold day. Showery in the morning.
Fire in the furnace to dry out the house at 1 a.m. This morning Charlie and Mr. Davey roused us out of bed. Had caught the boys who robbed Mr. Davey's store. Were here for nearly 2 hours. Was after 4 a.m. before I got to sleep. Mr. M. here after church. Finished reading
"The Lucky Number" by Jan Hay.
Walked 50 times the length of the drawing room rug and had a walk around the