

August, 1926

23 Monday. Thunderstorms and heavy rains this p.m. Sultry and threatening this morning.

Walter took a load of grit to Floradale and got the horses shod.

This afternoon he was gadding.

24 Tuesday. Fair and cooler.

Uerna & Ella did the washing this a.m. Walter got some bricks for the chimney at his Dad's. This afternoon Walter & Ella went to Kitchener. Callers - Geo Bolander, Peter Ross, Charles Miller, Fred Forwell, Enoch, Irvin & Eva Snider.

25 Wednesday. Lovely day.

The men tried to cut grain but the ground is too soft. Ella & Ella Miller were at a quilting at Jim Weaver's this afternoon and the men came up for them tonight.
