NOVEMBER THURSDAY 23 (327-38) 1922

cold and windy I went up to Will Steacys for a while in the forenoon and I sorted apples and got the most of ours in the cellar down to John Randalls for a while in the evening

FRIDAY 24 (328-37)

very cold and windy today around home all day. Ab Leadbeater got his barrell of apples. I fixed up the barn door in afternoon and settled up with John Rodgers and took his note for $44.00 for seven months over to Office in the evening.

NOVEMBER SATURDAY 25 (329-36) 1922

very cold and windy today with a few flurries of snow. I pumped up the pressure in the morning. I got some apples out for John Monaghan and Will syed. Wright Colemans funeral was here this afternoon Lydia went and I stayed at Office. Joe McEby came here in the evening and I gave him a tire for his car and helped him until late rigging up. very cold tonight.

SUNDAY 26 (330-35)

fine day but cold around home all day. Mrs Ruben Kenny was buried this afternoon Mary and Jac. here. Mrs Cockill Gerald and Ida here. This afternoon I did some writing in the evening