

Weather, cloudy and rain then clearing & warm Got into working order a rain in morning by cleaning an inspection of place Men fixed fence in rowed buckwheat

Weather, cloudy, warm, rain early in Morn. turning cool at night

Neighborhood Workers' Ass.
Gives Cups for Oratory.

Lake View Branch reported interesting monthly demonstrations and competitions, and an ingenious use of the roll call. It donated two silver cups to S.S. No. 9 for a contest in oratory, gave assistance to helpless infants and to sick persons.

A particularly commendable report came from Scarboro' Junction Women's Institute, and told of buying "woollen underwear for the mother of a family, and underwear, stockings, boots and rubbers for the children." It sent regular donations to a deserted wife, assisted with a cot for the new East End Hospital, gave an offering toward the salary of a doctor in Northern Ontario, and sent flowers to various hospitals. It held a shower of canned fruit for the Home for Incurable Children, and another of fruit cake for the King's Mission.

The Richmond Hill Branch told of paying a story-teller to conduct a Children's Story Hour in co-operation with the public library, and the Stouffville organization reported a gift of a drinking fountain and 15 park seats to its municipality. A choral class with 112 members was also organized at Stouffville.

A Flower Day in the month of August was a red-letter occasion in the Union-ville Branch.

Wexford Junior Institute told of total receipts for the last year of $230, and expenditures of $199. The various junior branches reported full membership in the League of Nations Society, and the Buttonville Branch became a member of the Child Welfare Council.

The Markham Sextet rendered several selections at the annual meeting, and one of the younger members gave a delightful piano solo. Mr. Harris spoke on the development of the new East End Hospital, to which the district is a subscriber.

Judge Mott Speaks.

Much interest was aroused by Judge H. S. Mott, who spoke about problems confronting parents. He urged his hearers to use every effort to reduce wastage in child life.

Mrs. I. Graves was re-elected President by acclamation. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Mason were appointed Vice-Presidents, and Miss Heron was made Secretary-Treasurer.

butter in morning
on repacked in morning tatoes & scuffed mangel id Buttonville ball ville wone

Bonds for Fraternal Orders

Golfers' Liability Insurance