

discover a going for her that she went to bed. She was tired out any way. It looks to me as if the fat that is in the jars would hermetically seal them, ~~and that~~ I don't see why it should matter if a little acid did get in at the top. She had 4 pints of it. This afternoon I chummed out the pullets pen and put some fresh straw in and I cleaned out the old hen's pen after tea. It is so beautifully moon light that it is really the best time to do it as it doesn't disturb the hens.
Now that I have such nice straw on hand I didn't want to waste any time cleaning them out as they needed it. Harry B. was out all the afternoon helping me Murry Blake was in this afternoon and left our assessment at 1000. Beautiful day, sunny and very mild.

Saturday February 7th

This has been another beautiful day, so mild it was fairly warm. Truman Walker came in this morning while I was sitting around after breakfast reading and we settled up for the wheat I got it come to $19.80 He let me have the first lot at $1.35 as that is what he got for what he sold at that time and the rest at $1.60.
Although it is now at $1.80 and going up and he is still holding his. I did up the chares this morning. got in a supply of corn stalks and cleaned all the old rotten mangels and pumpkins out of the cellar. As it was such a beautiful day, I thought I would go down then after noon and get my hair cut so we all went but didn't get started very early. Murj & the children waited for me at Auntie's while I went up town. Aunt Morriss' shop was full of girls but Bob Loney's was not so bad so I got through by half past five, but it made us late getting home. Lilla was being kept very quiet in day so they had to keep the kids in the kitchen till Dick came home and wanted to have a bath and then he occupied the pitcher. He & Primit, Ada, Alan & Zutha were going to a party at the Greenman's

Sunday February 8th

I have been lately getting up at five o'clock in order to see that the fire is all right and to get a chance to look at the paper and write this while the house is quiet and I can keep awake, a thing that seems impossible after tea. This morning I was tired and Murj kindly shut off the alarm clock so that I stayed in bed till six when I had to get up and dress the nibblits. I
