

March 1884

- 11 Raining we will have a flood. To inquire of Dan's sent a letter to Sandy. 4cts 25
- 12 Wednesday a row at School. P. I. teacher & Assistant Master H. D. crossed woods. very fine day sunny in the morning, afternoon sunshine, warm wind
- 13 Jimmie very bad today. Had Mrs Covie helping me to wash. Had two weeks clothes^{37 1/2}. Yesterday got at Gadsden's 2 1/2 yds cotton 12 = 30 - 2 lbs sugar 10 = 20 50
at Dan's paper pins 5cts. 1 needles 5-10 10
I was at Auntie's this evening the roads are very bad. I got 1 bottle Fellows Compound H-phosphatis 1.25 1.25 at J.A.'s. Paid some 75 cents for 6 lbs honey 75
- 14 Got a copy of John's Will from Teach. for Annie & I. 50cts each 50
News of the war in London. ^{13th} General Graham's forces Captain Omen Digma's camp routed his forces. his loss 4000 Killed 6000 wounded. British loss 70 Killed 100 wounded a terrible Colliery explosion at Pocahontas, W. Va. on the night of the 12 March. over 150 supposed to be killed
- 15 Beautiful day. To dred apples 25cts Black sheep 25cts 50
- 16 Another fine day I was to church, a very good sermon by McGillivray. Jimmie McRory daughter was buried yesterday Ronald Ronald Grant's daughter will be buried tomorrow both deaths consumption
- 17 Monday. St Patrick's snow and slush but not cold. All young folk with green ribbons To 2 loaves bread 15. Sold 2 doz eggs 15 at Willis. 21cts = 42. paid an old account of Burdys of 86cts = 44cts and the eggs = 86 86
- 18 To get the place insured in the N. B. & Merchants. By McGregor 10cts 20

4.86
20