

Sunday, December 12th

Mary and I went to church and Sunday school this morning and stayed at Auntie's for dinner. We came home fairly early after dinner and it was such a beautiful day, we just poked around the place. I in my shirt sleeves and bare headed as the weather was like April. I went over to the farm and helped do the chores and we stayed home all evening. Frank and Mary were going down to Auntie's for tea to night.

Monday, December 13th

I got up about 4:30 this morning to work at my show cards but was rather late getting to the farm. I did chores and put tar paper around most of my little apple trees. Dad ploughed all day except for a while after dinner when Frank relieved him and he went down to Pickford's with a confirmation cap for Irene. Frank dug ditches and husked a little corn just did chores and husked corn this afternoon and to night I finished making a hoppers for Quaker chickens and helped Mary make some Christmas candy. It has been very mild but cloudy rained this afternoon & to night.

Tuesday, December 14th

Dad and Frank finished ploughing the field back of the barn to day. Frank stayed all night over with Tom & Mark as it was pouring rain when he started home. It has been very windy and cloudy all day and is getting colder to night. I just did chores and husked a little corn. Mary went down to a tea party at Auntie's this afternoon and stayed here for tea to go to a Sunday school meeting after work so I stayed at the farm and went down to night and met Mary at Pickie's. Leah stayed down to so I went down and met her at Auntie's. Auntie & uncle looks really

Wednesday, December 15th

Mary went over with me to the arena this morning to practice with Evelyn for a duet they are going to play at the concert out at the school house next week and we stayed here for dinner. The wind is still very high and it is cold and breezy so that we didn't try to do anything but chores. Frank went down to Pickford's and helped them fill Pickford's silo now. Mary won't have gone down to a girls meeting to night but decided not to go and Frank Smith telephoned over for me to go down to a meeting but I said I was too busy so stayed home and slept all evening.

Thursday, December 16th

Dad went down town this morning with Auntie's
