

Wroton December 1907

Sat Dec 14th Snow all high wind from the east. Sarah was in a minute

Sun Dec 15th Soft the snow melted of the trees and fences Mrs Mc. Donald was buried Sarah was here this evening

Sun Dec 16th cloudy and mild I had quite a time cleaning the coal stove Walter was in for the key for the granery

Tue Dec 17th cloudy a pleasant winters day Sleighs and cutters have been going levelly. Bilton was in a few minutes Sarah was over this evening

Wed Dec 18th cloudy a light drizzling snow all fine winters day. Dick brought me some Cisters

Wed Dec 19th cloudy and cold. Sarah was here for the cloaths to wash Will was for my over coat.

Thu Dec 20th cloudy part of the day and mild Sarah was here scribbling the floors

Sat Dec 21 cloudy and mild. Bilton and and his Grand Daughters came in