

January, 1925.

9 Friday. Beautiful sunny winter's day. Walter took some pigs up to Geo. Norman's this morning and this afternoon they were trying to saw wood with Elmo King's engine. Our company for supper - Mr. & Mrs. Ezra Maurer, Mr. & Mrs. Norman Snider and Mr. Jno. Maurer. We went to the Literary at Jac. Spieck's tonight and the programme was very good. Eli Martin's house just below Elmira burned down this p.m.

10 Saturday. Fair. Walter killed a whopping big pig for Mr. Norris today.

11 Sunday. Very cold and windy. We went to Woolwich church & S. S. this p.m. and over to Norman Snider's at Floradale for tea. These people were also there - Mr. & Mrs. Angus Weber, Mr. & Mrs. Oscar Schmidt and Mr. & Mrs. Harold Hodew and we had a very nice time. Dick Zuidervaart was here for tea.
