

Sunday, October 6

280 DAYS PAST

Sunday

86 TO COME

Surgical Suggestions.

When dressing a freely suppurating wound of one of the extremities it is much better to apply the gauze in flat pads than in circular turns. Soiled gauze wound about an extremity cannot well be removed in a cleanly fashion; and, too, circular turns tend, by spreading the pus over the skin, to set up a pustular dermatitis.—Amer. Journ. of Surg.

Weather

Temp.

A fine day
John dug the potatoes
what we left in the corn field. Girls went to school
Albert was up

Mariah 6