

1891

1891
October 2. D. diving saw the Tharshas he expels them today

15 It is flying over the Harbor here.
16 the sparrow last night, night after dark and got the 17 4. 37. 14 heart in the 16 the threshers last night night after dark the thrasher into barn they thrashed the wheat in the the oats now

^{as seen} - Honorable J. H. Linneman & had 96 Bushel they are at the mill they brought the remaining Mill off their astrang & do no more to be 7508 bushel

They broke the Paving Mill off their They got it this morning & since the oats had 508 bushel altogether and Peas 48 Buckwheat 33 Bushel all together there is 755 Bushel of Grain that I lay there it is Alexander Cornth's throat & it did goad went 18 Rev. W. Fairley preached at night fine day

19 Ad and Watts drove in the cornstalk from 6th to 11th Street.

field line dry time & Sown of them East of the team

Barri in the forenoon Walt's went away then Ad draw in the nest then & set them on end on the Barred Lark the others is in the Mow on the ^{side}

20 I went to young this morning he took the Ram with him he is looking for 8 hours for the Boys in the Northwest he did not one that he liked

25 There was heavy rain last night & I got home

There was heavy rain last night. To night he exchanged Rams with a Gold and

10. Night he exchanged Rams with a Bull and bought a Lamb. A South down from Mr

Which he lives at the Cheesbark tree. then

22. As I began to follow in the valley the 8/11/11

23 Plowing in stubble field

13. It is blowing in Shubelpit pine day
24. It is blowing in Shubelpit pine day

24 Ad is helping Wallace at the threshing machine for

Rev. Mr. Fairley preached this morning fine day

26. A. is plowing in the stubble field. D. is

27 Do Do Do Do

28 Do Do Philip Wallace & Co

of his Bayley he ^{it} ^{to} ^{clean up} some 29 of his Barley he sold at the station

29 Wallace finished cleaning up his head

38. It is flowing and has been plaining & has been all the week it is & since fall has been

31. He planned this forenoon with the

Mr. McNeil was then present and they went to the of Mrs William McNeil 18 of Mr. William M. Keel she sold of all stock that sold well for 8