

July

SUNDAY, 10

1921

Betty & I up to Uncle Richd's for dinner and Harry's for tea.
Brock to town at night.

Warm and cloudy. Thunder storms going round.

MONDAY, 11

Cultivating and harrowing summer fallow. Brock scuffling corn in afternoon.

Warm and bright.

TUESDAY, 12

Home away all day to Palmerston.
Brock scuffling potatoes & mangels.
I took Betty & Phillian to morning train.

Very hot and calm.
Re-powered grey stone turnips

WEDNESDAY, 13

Sowed potatoes and hoeing mangels second time.

Very hot day.